Mining

Reduce production down time, save costs

Mining activity often requires ultra-fast troubleshooting to limit shutdowns or machine down time.

That is why we designate a purchasing team with experienced logistics professionals to ensure the shortest delivery time. We respond quickly to your needs be it technical, troubleshooting, supply and management of stock.

Oil & Gas

A long-term supply partner

Oil and gas operations require unique skills and technical expertise.

A purchasing team trained in dealing with O&G needs and their strict technical standards including the study and supply of traceable materials (OCTG, packages, valves, etc...).

TFE offers quality service and the option for entering into framework supply contracts thereby ensuring a credible, reliable and trustworthy long term supply partner to your organisation.

Engineering

Partner in your innovations

Design offices (EPC) has stringent technical requirements specific to the project to be carried out and a particular constraint on the completion time.

TFE stands out as a complementary partner to the overall completion of the project.

Often being aware of the end users and their technical and operational specifications, our sourcing experts become valuable partners.

Chemicals / Lubricants

Recommend the best as the safest

TFE's role is to help to choose the best product for your application.

With our substantial experience in the field of lubricants and chemicals, we rely on our expertise and that of our subsidiary, MYLUBRICANTS, a renowned manufacturer of lubricants, to offer you the most effective products.

Are you looking for a particular premium brand? Are you experiencing recurring technical problems with lubrication? Paying too much? Our specialists are at your disposal to help and offer you tailor-made solutions.
